

Recognizing Achievement: MMR's 2019 Most Influential Women

RECOGNIZING ACHIEVEMENT

DOLLAR GENERAL

Dollar General is proud to announce five leaders were named to the 2019 Mass Market Retailing's Most Influential Women list including:

- Rhonda Taylor - Executive Vice President and General Counsel
- Anita Elliott - Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer
- Tracey Herrmann - Senior Vice President of Store Operations
- Kathy Reardon – Senior Vice President and Chief People Officer
- Emily Taylor - Senior Vice President and General Merchandise Manager

Each year, MMR honors women who rank among the most consequential executives in mass market retailing. Dollar General is proud to have five women recognized for their achievements. Their leadership contributes to Dollar General's continued success and we are thrilled their talents were recognized.

Congratulations!